About this journal

The B.A.P-I Journal of Internal Security & Strategic Sectorial Resilience (JISSR) is a peer-reviewed, interdisciplinary journal of the Bharat Assets Protection Institute (B.A.P-I), published by Bharat Assets Publication. It is dedicated to the internal security of Bharat and to the resilience of the strategic sectors the nation cannot afford to lose. Threats to national stability now arrive through many doors at once: terrorism and radicalisation, hybrid and cyber attacks, disasters and climate extremes, industrial accidents, organised crime and failures of governance. JISSR studies how institutions, laws, technologies and communities can anticipate, absorb and recover from these threats, and how resilience can be measured, regulated and built into every critical sector. It brings security professionals, disaster managers, legal and governance experts, technologists and scholars onto one platform.

Abstract

A summary of 150 to 250 words: the question, the approach, the main findings and what they mean. Written last, read first.

Keywords

Five to eight terms that a reader would search for, separated by semicolons.

Introduction

Set out the question, why it matters for Bharat now, and how the piece is organised. End with the main argument in one or two sentences.

Literature review

What is already known, which questions are settled and where the gap lies that this study addresses.

Method and data

How the study was done: sources, period, sample, tools and limits, so that another researcher could check or repeat it.

Findings

What the evidence shows, set out in order of importance, with tables or figures where they help.

Discussion

What the findings mean, how they compare with earlier work and where they are uncertain.

Conclusion

Draw the argument together. State plainly what follows for policy or practice and what remains open. No new evidence here.

References

Every source cited in the text, in one consistent style. Example: Author, A. (Year). Title of the work. Publisher or Journal, Volume(Issue), pages. DOI or link.

Annexures

Supporting tables, instruments, data notes or documents that would interrupt the main text.
